

Aurora Foundation for People Abused in Childhood

COUNSELLING PLACEMENT OPPORTUNITY

The Aurora Foundation for People Abused in Childhood is a registered charity and trauma recovery service based in London, SW15. We provide psychotherapy and community support services for men and women victims/survivors of childhood abuse. We are looking for dedicated placement trainees to join our specialist therapy Team. Applicants will have a passion and deep empathy (not just cognitive) for helping adult survivors to reclaim their lives after early trauma. Please read carefully the information on our website as only serious applications are considered. Our qualified Team members who came to us as trainees say:

'Aurora is not just a placement'
